1. At a dinner party on 17 August 1950, at the home of LIM Koon Teck, a close associate of K.C. LEE, TAN Cheng Lock, K.C. LEE, GHEE, an associate of K.C. LEE, and LIM Koon Teck stated that they were convinced that the US should recognize the Chinese Communist Government, since the US Government was alienating itself by not taking this action. The members of the group agreed that the People's Government represents China, while the Nationalists do not.
2. Members of the group indicated that they intend to enlist additional support for a movement to spread this view. Their aim is to help influence the US to change its present policy if possible.
3. During this discussion, members of the group seemed to indicate that there is now an honorary Consul General of the Chinese People's Government in Singapore.
